The Dean Welsh Memorial Bicycle Races
under the rules and sanctions of the United States Cycling Federation

3 DAYS: Saturday, May 27, TRACK; Sunday, May 28, CRITERIUM; Monday, May 29, TRACK

This weekend of racing features two levels of competition: individuals compete for prizes and clubs compete for a perpetual trophy, which will go to the club whose riders accumulate the most points in three days of racing. The Dean Welsh Memorial Trophy will be inscribed with the name of the winning club. In order to score points for a club, riders must wear the club jersey.

These races commemorate the dedication of Dean Welsh to all bike riders and to the sport and are being held on the anniversary of her death while working at the races.

ENTRIES must be postmarked by Monday, May 22. Fees are listed below. Double entry fee for late registration and for unattached riders. National champions will race free only if preregistered and if they compete in their National jerseys.
